Dear Mr Broschomb,

Further, to the email below – have you any information you can provide on what is going on with the Buck – even if it is that the situation is unchanged

Many thanks

Peter

Dear Mr Broschomb,

I am fully aware of your dislike of rumour and gossip, nonetheless a number of people locally “have heard” that new landlords have been nominated for the Buck and that they will take over on the 7th July, re-opening at the end of the month. Can you confirm that this is the case, or – better still – let me have a statement which I can put on the village website.

If it is true, please could you also forward this email to the new landlords, and suggest to them that they themselves might like to make some sort of announcement via the web-site, which they can do by emailing me.

Many thanks

Regards

Peter
