Dear Anne,

Thank you for this e mail and the generous offer of assistance. NYCC and all the District Councils met with the Home Office this week, and agreed to work together to play our part in delivering the Prime Minister`s commitment. Clearly District Councils have a primary role to play in providing a housing offer, and then the County Council will commit our resources around education, health care, social care etc. To have such a generous wrap around offer from the community will also be most helpful. I don`t know which area will be used first, and then in what sequence, but we will be contacting community groups in the areas, and your contact is most timely.

Thank you for writing to me. Once again North Yorkshire residents demonstrate how fortunate we are to live in such a wonderful place.

Yours sincerely,

Carl Les

Please find attached a letter from a number of individuals across Upper Wharfedale who express their concerns regarding the current refugee situation. We are not pursuing any political agenda but responding to a humanitarian crisis as we see it.

Yours sincerely
