

REFUGEES WELCOME!

FORTHCOMING EVENT - free, donations welcome

Are you concerned about refugees but hear so many different stories and wish you understood the current crisis better? Do you want to help but are confused by all the different organisations and what they do?

Craven Refugee Support Network is hosting a Zoom event on Monday 13th September at 7pm

Refugees: making sense of the current situation and how you can help

Stella Perrott, from Upper Wharfedale Refugee Support group and a writer on refugee and immigration matters, will explain the current global, national and local situation and their implications for refugee support over the coming months.
